

Irish Society of Inherited Metabolic Disorders

Friday 12th April 2019, The Pillar Room, Rotunda Hospital

Multi-system Presentation of Metabolic Disorders

9.30 Registration & Coffee

9.45 Welcome address – Prof. Philip Mayne

Session 1: Glycosylation Disorders

Chair: Prof. Ina Knerr

10.00 Introduction: diagnostic dilemmas, patient numbers, MDT involvement, international testing
Prof. Monavari, Metabolic Consultant, National Centre for Inherited Metabolic Disorders (NCIMD), Temple Street Children's University Hospital, Dublin

10.15 The diagnosis and management of complex disorders involving Glycosylation of proteins and lipids
Prof. Dirk Lefeber, Radboud University Medical Centre, Nijmegen, The Netherlands

11.00 Coffee

Session 2: Looking at Neurometabolic Disorders

Chair: Dr. Siobhán O'Sullivan

11.15 Diagnosis of IEM through an Irish Neurology Clinic
Dr. Bryan Lynch, Consultant Paediatric Neurologist, Temple Street Children's University Hospital, Dublin

11.45 Radiological abnormalities in neuro-metabolic patients
Dr. Stephanie Ryan, Consultant Paediatric Radiologist, Temple Street Children's University Hospital, Dublin

12.15 Metabolic disorders through the eyes
Prof. Ian Flitcroft, Consultant Ophthalmologist, Temple Street Children's University Hospital, Dublin

12.45 Lunch

Session 3: Disorders affecting the Liver

Chair: Prof. Philip Mayne

1.30 What can we learn from Bile Acid analyses?
Prof. Peter Clayton, Genetics & Genomic Medicine Programme, Institute of Child Health, Great Ormond Street, London, UK

2.15 The management of metabolic liver disease patients from an Irish perspective
Prof. Ellen Crushell, Metabolic Consultant, National Centre for Inherited Metabolic Disorders (NCIMD), Temple Street Children's University Hospital, Dublin

2.45 Coffee

Session 4: Case Studies

Chair: Dr. Joanne Hughes

3.00 Case Studies

4.15 Close – Prof. A.A. Monavari